

Machinist

About Murray Latta Progressive Machine Inc. (MLPM)

MLPM provides turnkey industrial machine solutions to a variety of heavy industrial customers in the Lower Mainland and serves the Forestry Planermill Industry throughout the Pacific Northwest. We are currently looking for a Machinist to work in our plant located in Surrey.

Job Description and Responsibilities:

The Machinist is responsible for machining parts for Jobbing, Products and Repair work for new machinery and and/or the refurbishment of existing machinery. Operation of Manual Lathes, Milling Machines, Horizontal Boring Mills, and Vertical Boring Mills. Those with CNC skills in operating CNC Machining Centers & CNC Horizontal Boring Mills would be an asset, though not required.

Required skills and experience:

Minimum 8 years' experience in the Machining trade
Able to verify dimensions of machined parts
Good understanding of mechanical drawings
Able to produce accurate precision parts
Experience in a manufacturing environment
Good organization skills
Detail oriented
Mechanical aptitude
Safety conscious with safe work habits
Completion of high school or equivalent
Post-secondary, vocational or technical training is an asset

Compensation and Benefits:

As per Union Contract.

Send resume by responding to this posting.

While we sincerely appreciate every application, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.