10. The Seller shall notify the Buyer of its readiness to deliver the Goods and delivery shall be taken by the Buyer within the period specified in such notification.
11. If the Buyer does not accept delivery of the Goods during the specified delivery period, the Seller may, in its sole and unfettered discretion, store the Goods at the Seller's facility or other premises. During such storage, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this agreement, the Goods will be at the sole risk of the Buyer and the Seller shall not be responsible to insure, maintain or protect the Goods. The Buyer's obligation to pay the Seller for the Goods shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any damage or destruction to or theft of the Goods while they are being stored by the Seller pursuant to this section.
12. The Seller may charge the Buyer rent during such period of storage, in addition to, not in substitution for, any other payment or damages for which the Buyer may become liable to the Seller. Additional terms and conditions governing the terms of storage shall be governed by the Seller's form of Warehouse Receipt, available to the Buyer upon request.
13. Unless the Seller has specified in the Quotation that it will arrange for shipment to a destination specified by the Buyer, the Buyer shall take delivery of the Goods at the Seller's premises and shall make proper provision for the transport or collection of the Goods from the Seller's premises. If the Seller has agreed to arrange shipment or if the method of shipment has not been specified by the Buyer, the Seller may in its sole and unfettered discretion select a shipping method and carrier, and the Seller shall not be liable for damage or loss of the Goods even if the Seller was negligent in making such selection.

15. Buyer shall examine the Goods upon receipt, and within five business days shall notify Seller in writing of any discrepancy between the type, number and quality of the Goods contracted for and those received. If such notice is not given, the Goods shall be deemed to be accepted by Buyer, and Buyer shall accept and pay for them in accordance to the payment terms agreed to by the parties.
16. If default is made by the Buyer in paying any sum due to Seller under this Agreement or any other agreement which the Buyer may have with the Seller, the Seller may, without notice and without prejudice to any other remedies, either suspend all further deliveries until payment is made or cancel the order and retain any Goods not yet delivered to Buyer for its own use absolutely.

D. MOVING AND RIGGING

17. All transportation and warehousing of Goods and Services performed by Seller shall be governed by the terms and conditions by Seller's standard form Bill of Lading and Warehouse Receipt, respectively, copies of which are available from Seller upon request.

20. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where the Buyer has provided the Seller with weights of certain items and weight-bearing capacity of certain structures and surfaces, the Seller may rely upon such weights without independently verifying them, and the Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Seller from any loss or damage resulting from inaccuracies in stated weights and capacities.
21. Amounts quoted for Services are based on the Seller's previous experience with similar installations. If, due to circumstances outside Seller's control, such Services require more labour or materials than Seller reasonably expects, Seller may increase the price accordingly.
22. Except where stated otherwise in the Quotation or a Work Order, the Seller shall have no responsibility for ensuring that any Goods or Services meet with seismic safety requirements required by any applicable authority, and the Buyer shall be solely responsible for ensuring seismic safety and shall instruct the Seller accordingly.

F. WARRANTY

23. Unless otherwise stated, all warranties provided by Seller pursuant to this agreement have a term of the lesser of:

All costs of removal and reinstallation of the Goods and shipping of the Goods to and from the Seller's location shall be borne by the Buyer.
27. Where Seller has provided performance or production figures to the Buyer, such figures are based on experience obtained during tests by the Seller at the Seller's premises. Seller will not be liable to Buyer for failure to obtain equivalent results on any specific installation. If Goods fail to meet Seller's performance figures due to a defect in materials or workmanship, and Seller is notified of such failure during the Warranty Period, then the Seller shall repair or replace as reasonably necessary in order to ensure that such figures are met, provided however that if, in Seller's sole and unfettered discretion, it would be impractical or uneconomical for Seller to make such repairs or replacements, Seller may at its option remove and keep any such defective Goods and refund all payments made by the Buyer, and this Agreement shall be terminated.
